

Off to Bluesfest, Byron Bay 2015

The Dawg is off to the Byron Bay Bluesfest this Easter 2015, with media and photographer accreditation. We'll bring you a daily bunch of stories and pics as we go direct from the site, and with the new Canon DLSR with video, we might even sneak in a few clips. If yer heading there, make sure you say hi!!

STOP PRESS: and a first for the Dawg - we will be producing a show in Byron using all new portable studio gear. Wish me luck tone hounds.
